Agenda:

Gerren Young will demonstrate Gold Leaf techniques

The April meeting was held at Al Collison's shop in Cooper. Just under 40 members and guests attended the meeting. Several members had items for show and tell.

The feature presenter was Chris Schoenberg from the Mid Michigan Woodworkers Guild.

Chris's presentation was on traditional workbenches and traditional work holding techniques.

More information about Chris can be found on YouTube under Third Coast Craftsman and Chris's web page www.thirdcoastcraftsman.com. There you will find links to purchase plans for workbenches and other useful items.

The newsletter editor apologies for the brevity of this letter. A demanding work schedule has left him with little free time. Project deadlines will soon pass and hopefully things will return to normal.
